WHEN FATHER SIGNS A CHECK.

They've lately served poor father up in quite sarcastic truck,
"When father signs a check,"
"When father signs a check,"
And when he monkeys this or that
To any rhymester's beck,
But no one yet has sung about
When father signs a check.

The old man isn't up to-date
In table manners, p'raps,
And doesn't talk, or walk or dress
Like modern college chaps,
But on his business habits, sirs,
There's neither flaw nor fleck,
You've got a paper good as gold
When father signs a check.

He uses the colonial quill,
The letters of his name
Are rugged as the hand that writes
Unevenly the same,
But you can bet the jewels all
That kingly crowns bedeck,
The banks hand out the requisite
When father signs a check.

With the exception of the gasoline engine, this little craft is a Maysville creation, having been built within a stone's throw of the wharftoat under the general supervision of its owner, who, by the way, knows all about the building of water craft.

The Newt Cooper, with about thirty invited guests aboard, left the wharf and headed up stream, going as far as Manchester.

On the up trip she made about seven miles an hour and on the down trip about ten miles an hour were registered, and this performance was accomplished without a single accident or anything to cause a stoppage.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles. "Hochinger's German Syrup." It not only soothes and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. C. Peacor.
